Copy of letter dated 1st Septr.1924,from Mr.Bowring,I.G.of Police,Bangalore,to the Dewan of Mysore.

With reference to our conversation yesterday evening regarding giving my son a start in the Mysore Service, I have been thinking over the matter,and it seems to me that the best thing for him would be to start him as a Police Probationer,and give him training in the various branches,such as under the Superintendent in the Gold Fields,in the Head Office and school , in the Cities and in a District under a Superintendent. During this time he - should be required to pass the Local Service Criminal higher,and an examination in the Vernacular. At the end of this time Govt. might if they think fit, and he does well,give him a nomination to the MysoreCivil Service.

I suggested this in preference to appointing him as an Inspector or Prob.Assist:Supdt: as it will get over the difficulty that might arise as regards promotion if he is placed in the same grade as other officers in the Police Department.

Being a Police Probationer he would be a Supernumerary and when the time came to definitely appoint him to some post it could be done without interfering with the claims of other officers in the regular grades. If considered worth while he might even e deputed to study Police work at Scotland Yard. I would suggest that his pay during the Prob.period might be fixed at Rs.200 a month,plus a horse allowance.

If you agree with this I should be very glad if you will let me know. He is an intelligent boy and I am sure will do his very best to repay the great kindness shown to him,and myself, by His Highness the Maharaja,by by making himself an acquisition to the Mysore Service.

With kind regards.

Copy of letter No.P.C.53/En1.dated 3rd Septr.1924,from the Dewan of Mysore,to the P.S. to H.H.the Maharaja of Mysore.

I enclose a letter,in original,from Mr.Bowring regarding the employment of his son in the Mysore State Service. My recommendation is and I have discussed the matter at some length with Mr.Bowring,that Mr.Bowring,junior, may be appointed as a Probationer in the Police Department to be recruited as an Assistant Superintendent of Police after training for a period ofone year. He may be treated as supernumerary and during the period of probation he may be given a salary of Rs.150/- ~~and~~ per mensem and after confirmation,given a salary of Rs 200/- The question of nominating him into the Civil Service may be considered when he come to the limit of age prescribed for the recruitment of candidated for the Civil Service and after he has been in thePolice for a least two years.
